Vol. 2

KREBS, OKLAHOMA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1914

Number 44

New Year's Greetings DANIELS

THE Rexall DRUGGIST
M'ALESTER

"Madame Sherry."

Mgr. Estes is pleased to announce to his patrons the engagement of that always clever musical show, "Madame Sherry" at Busby theatre, Tuesday night, Jan. 6th. This is beyond doubt one of the best attractions visiting McAlester this season. Seat sale now on.

The Krebs Lumber Co., now have a sign that you don't have to take a magnifying glass to see.

Announcement.

Rev. Lauring, pastor Grace M. E. church requests us to make the announcement that services will be held at his church as follows: Preaching on the first and third Sunday's of each month at 11 a. m., and every Sunday night, Sunday school at 10 a. m., and prayer meeting every Wednesday evening.

A Nice Wish.

The Bank of Krebs, always in the foreground with something new and novel, sends to all its friends and patrons a handsome New Year card with the following wish thereon:

"That the year nineteen hundred and fourteen will bring you increased prosperity, a measure full to overflowing with happiness and friends of proven worth, and that our pleasant relations of the past will continue stronger than ever is the sincere wish of

The Officers and Directors of
THE BANK OF KREBS
Jan. 1st, 1914. Krebs, Ok.

Mrs. R. K. Pemberton departed Sunday night for Fulton, Mo., in answer to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her mother.

Watch Party.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the holiday season was the line and watch party given by Miss Kathryn Church at her home on East First st., Wednesday evening.

The early part of the evening was spent in music and games after which the guests enjoyed the last performance at the Dreamland Theatre, after which they returned to Miss Church's home where they awaited the coming of the New Year. The time was spent in dancing, music and various games. At a late hour the hostess assisted by her mother and Mrs. McGinnis served an elegant two-course luncheon.

Those who enjoyed the evening were: Misses Ila West, Nellie James, Nellie McAlpine, Hazel Flesher, Marie Naughton, Marie Hokey, Anna McGinnis, Agnes Howard, Ethel Homer and Helen Miller of McAlester; Messrs Joe Joyce, Roy Mumaw, Clarence and Cecil Homer, Tom Crowder, Kirtley and Alfred Pemberton, Ross and Victor Suggett and Newton Oglesby.

Good-Bye Lee.

Lee Silmon and son Isaac were arrested last Saturday for talking on too much "fire water," and after spending the night in the city "bull pen" were brought before Mayor Otterson who assessed a fine of $10.80 against Isaac and $25.00 and thirty days in the county jail for Lee.

Take Lee Silmon sober he is a pretty fair Indian and reasonably well informed on Indian affairs, but let him get an oversupply of "choc" he invariably breaks into jail.

DANIELS'
McAlester.

Reward Due Him.

What might have proved a serious wreck on the "Nellie" was averted on Christmas eve, by Joe Michael when he discovered a broken rail just north of the depot. The rail was first noticed by the road inspector who put up a danger signal. The section foreman not seeing the broken rail and thinking the danger signal a prank, proceeded to take it down. Little Ferris Saffa was really the first to give warning, and calling his uncle Joe who arrived just in time to save the train from what might have been a serious wreck.

"Fire Fly," matinee and night Saturday, Busby Theatre.

New Years Shoot.

Several members of the Krebs Gun Club held an interesting shoot Thursday and the following scores were made:

	Shot at	Broke
C. B. Homer	100	90
H. W. Kiple	100	84
H. H. Hokey	100	74
Dan Jones	100	74
D. Varley	100	75
Lyle Kiple	50	26

Will Make the Race.

Constable Andy Banks was over from McAlester first of the week and while here informed us that he will be a candidate for sheriff of Pittsburg county at the coming election. Andy has served as constable in McAlester for years and years, and he feels now as though something better is due him. He is a conscientious democrat, thoroughly competent and would make Pittsburg county a good sheriff.

Off For Illinois.

Wm. Smith, a former resident of Krebs who has been spending the holidays here, left today for his home in Maywood, Ill. He was accompanied by Wm. Silinsky, who has secured a good position there. The Miner will keep them posted on Krebs happenings.

Married.

Squire Heathcock journeyed to Adamson Saturday and united in marriage Chas. Harris, formerly of Krebs, to Mrs. Fannie Seeley.

"Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," at Dreamland tonight.

Jas. McGinnis is home from Schuller today. He reports his mining interests booming and work moving along in good shape.
